LCSC Collecting Submissions for Youth Art Show

Lloydminster, AB/SK – The Lloydminster Cultural and Science Centre (LCSC) is calling on local youth to submit creations for the 2017 Youth Art Show.

Held in conjunction with National Youth Arts Week, the annual exhibit showcases the talent of local youth in a non-competitive setting. The exhibit runs May 2-27, 2017 at LCSC.

“The Youth Art Show is a gateway, an outlet for our youth in the region to express themselves through art,” said Natalie Clysdale, Supervisor, Lloydminster Cultural and Science Centre. “By featuring local youth and their work, we support their development as artists, while also providing an enhanced sense of community. Lloydminster’s arts and culture scene continues to grow and we are happy to be a facilitator of this growth.”

Submission requirements:

- Ages 3-18
- One piece of art per person
- 2D or 3D art works, including but not limited to:
 - o drawing,
 - o painting,
 - o sketching,
 - o print making,
 - o sculpture, comics,
 - o photography,
 - o digital media,
 - o mixed-media
- Maximum size: 3’ X 4’ per art piece
- 2D submissions must be ready to hang on the wall (wire or hooks)
- LCSC will not accept any wet or poorly wired artwork, or any artwork with faulty frames or canvasses
- Submissions must include a contact name and phone number properly labelled on the back of the art piece
- If an artist submits a piece that does not meet these criteria, special accommodations may be made, however, LCSC reserves the right to reject items.

Work may be delivered to LCSC from April 18 - 29. LCSC will not accept any late submissions. Submissions may be picked up May 30 & 31. Submissions will not be returned after June 5. LCSC is not responsible for items left after the exhibit closes.
