LGCC Recognized for Youth Leadership

Lloydminster, AB/SK – Marty Wheaton, Manager LGCC, has been recognized as Junior Leader of the Year by the Canadian Professional Golfers Association of Saskatchewan.

Selected by his peers for dedication to youth golf in the province, Marty now represents Saskatchewan as the nominee for the Jack McLaughlin Award. The award recognizes an individual with outstanding character, with a proven interest and ability to provide opportunities for youth in golf.

"I am extremely proud of my team and our city for propelling our junior program to the top in Saskatchewan," said Wheaton. "I am privileged to work with these athletes and to help build golf in our community."

The Jack McLaughlin Award will be presented in conjunction with Canada Night at the PGA Show in Orlando, Florida.
