City Welcomes New City Manager Dion Pollard

Lloydminster, AB/SK - The City of Lloydminster is pleased to welcome Dion Pollard as its incoming City Manager. Mr. Pollard assumes the position from departing Interim City Manager, Rick McDonald effective Nov. 1, 2017.

Born and raised in Lloydminster, Mr. Pollard brings a wealth of senior leadership experience spanning 20 years, with several municipalities within Alberta. He began his career as a Games Assistant for the 1997 Alberta Summer Games which took place in Lloydminster, before serving five years as the Director of Culture, Parks & Recreation with the Town of St. Paul. He then spent the following 14 years with the Town of Vermilion progressing from Director of Community Services to Town Manager/CAO, where he remained until he became the CAO for the City of Lacombe.

"I am excited and honored for the opportunity to be the next City Manager for the City of Lloydminster," said Pollard. "I look forward to the challenge put forth by Mayor Aalbers and Council and will continue the positive work being done to make Lloydminster a great place to live and do business."
