

Lloyd Supports 2023-2025

6. Safety and Security

6.1. Crisis and Emergency

6.1.1. Alberta Family Violence line

310-1818 (call or text)

www.alberta.ca/family-violence-find-supports.aspx

- 24/7 Support line for individuals who are experiencing domestic abuse.
- Family violence support.
- Safety planning resources.
- Local service and support resources.
- Available in multiple languages.
- In the event of an emergency, call 911.

6.1.2. Kids Help Line

1-800-668-6868

Text CONNECT to 686868

www.kidshelpphone.ca

- 24/7 service by phone, text, mobile app or through website.
- Counselling over the phone, including interpretation services in multiple languages.
- Peer-to-Peer Community is a collection of online support forums.
- Information and referral to local resources.

6.1.3. Lloydminster Interval Home Society – Family Violence Outreach Services

780-875-0966 (Crisis Line)

780-808-1777 (Text line)

communityoutreach@lloydintervalhome.com

www.intervalhome.org

- Offers individual support to women impacted by family violence to empower them to understand their experience, build on their strengths, and live independent, violence-free lives.
- Provides 1-on-1 support, Family Violence information, safety planning and advocacy.
- Provides support to older adults experiencing abuse of any kind.
- Provides community referrals based on needs assessment.

6.1.4. Lloydminster Sexual Assault Services

306-825-8255

5011 49 Ave, Lloydminster, SK S9V 1R5

reception@lsas.ca

www.lsas.ca

- Provides individual support to children, youth, adults and families who have been, directly or indirectly, impacted by sexual violence.
- Little Bear Child and Youth Advocacy Centre are programs to provide referrals, referrals, emotional and healing support to clients.
- North Ryken Enhanced Services are programs to support clients' healing journey. These include Anger Resolution, EFT (Emotional Freedom Tapping) and EMDR (Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing), Reconnection Program and Trauma-Informed Yoga.
- Police and Court Support program provides a court advocate to the client to help them navigate the judicial system.

Lloyd Supports 2023-2025

6. Safety and Security

6.1. Crisis and Emergency

6.1.5. Midwest Victim Services

780-874-5022

RCMP Building

5106 44 St, Lloydminster, AB T9V 3M1

jennifer.hauberg@rcmp-grc.gc.ca

www.midwestvictimservices.com

- Provides support, information and referrals, and court support to victims of crime and traumatic events.
- Crisis intervention and traumatic events support.
- Emotional and practical support.
- Staff and volunteers are available 24/7 by RCMP callouts.