Developments listed in subsection 3.2 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 do not require a Development Permit. All other types of development require a Development Permit.

Building Permits are subject to the regulations within the National Building Code and National Energy Code. For code related information and inquiries, please reach out to our contracted agency Superior Safety Codes at 780-870-9020.

Planning Services recommends that all applicants engage in consultation prior to starting any development project. To discuss your development, please contact Planning Services at 780-874-3700, permits@lloydminster.ca, or in person at the Lloydminster Operations Centre located at 6623 52 Street.

All development regulations can be found in Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.

Disclaimer: This information is for reference only. Refer to the complete Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 for all provisions. In the event of any discrepancy the provisions of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 shall take precedent.

Information Sheet

Portable Signs

A portable sign is a standalone temporary sign mounted or painted on a frame, stand or similar structure that is easily transported and erected for a limited time. This use does not include decal vehicles, urban furniture or A-board signs, but does include magnet signs, painted concrete barriers and other similar signs.

Does a Portable Sign Require a Permit?

- All portable signs require a Building and Development Permit.
- All portable signs must conform to all regulations within Land Use Bylaw 05-2025. The regulations included in the Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 include how long portable signs can be placed for, where they can be placed, how large they may be and more:
 - Subsection 16.5.4 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 contains general provisions for portable signs.

Where Can I Place a Portable Sign?

- Areas of the City allowing portable signs are indicated in subsection 16.5 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 in Table 14: Signs Allowed by District.
- Table 14: Signs Allowed by District designates portable signs as either permitted, discretionary or not allowed. Portable signs must adhere to the applicable permitted or discretionary use process depending on their designation.

Can I Place a Portable Sign in the Road Right-of-Way?

- Portable signs in the road right-of-way are only allowed in areas indicated within Map 4: Right of Way Portable Sign Approval Map in Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.

How Are Portable Signs Enforced?

- Portable signs are enforced in accordance with subsection 16.9.2 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.

Application Information:

- The Building and Development Permit application process for signs can be found in subsection 16.3 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.
- Portable signs require owner authorization from the landowners listed on the land title as part of the permit process.
- All permit fees are indicated in the City's Fees and Charges Bylaw as amended.
- If you apply for a Building and Development Permit after placing a portable sign without first obtaining approval, you may be charged double the permit fees.
- If your Building and Development Permit Application is refused or you do not agree with conditions of your approval you may appeal the decision to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board within twenty-one (21) days of the decision being rendered. This only applies to the development portion of the application.
