All development regulations can be found in Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.

Disclaimer: This information is for reference only. Refer to the complete Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 for all provisions. In the event of any discrepancy the provisions of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 shall take precedent.

Information Sheet

What is an Accessory Building or Structure?

An Accessory Building or Structure is a structure or detached building, the use of which is incidental, subordinate, or devoted and located on the same site as the principal building.

Does an Accessory Building or Structure Require a Permit?

- Accessory buildings or structures that conform with subsection 3.2 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 DO NOT require a Development Permit. All other accessory buildings or structures require a Development Permit.
- All Accessory Buildings or Structures must conform to all applicable regulations within Land Use Bylaw 05-2025:
 - Subsection 13.1 of the Land Use Bylaw 05-2025 contains general provisions regarding accessory buildings or structures.

Can my Accessory Building be a Sea Can/Shipping Container?

- A sea can/shipping container may be considered as an accessory building or structure if it conform to the provisions included in subsection 13.1 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.

Can my Accessory Structure be a Swimming Pool or a Hot Tub?

- A private swimming pool or hot tub may be considered as an accessory building or structure if it conforms with the provisions included in subsection 13.1 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.
- Private swimming pools or hot tubs DO NOT require a Development Permit if they conform with the provisions included in subsections 3.2 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.
- Development that may surround swimming pools, such as pergolas or decks, may still require a Development Permit.

Application Information:

- The Building and Development Permit application process can be found in subsections 3.3-3.5 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025.
- All permit fees are indicated in the City's Fees and Charges Bylaw as amended.
- If you apply for a Building and Development Permit during or after construction completion or commencement without first obtaining approval, you may be charged double the permit fees.
- If your Building and Development Permit Application is refused or you do not agree with conditions of your approval you can appeal the decision to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board within twenty-one (21) days of the decision being rendered. This only applies to the development portion of the application.

Additional Information:

- Remember to Call Before You Dig! Contact Utility Safety Partners for properties in Alberta or 1st Call for properties in Saskatchewan to locate utility and service locations prior to construction.
- The City does not mark property lines. If you do not know where your property line is, Planning Services recommends having a property survey completed by a registered land surveyor. All costs associated with this service is at your expense.
- Building Permits may be required for your development. As part of the Building Permit application, plans submitted must meet requirements within the National Building Code.
- Building Permits are issued by Superior Safety codes. For Building Permit information and submission requirements please contact their office at 780-870-9020.
- Applicants need to obtain Plumbing, Gas and Electrical Permits where necessary.
